PROJECT CENTER

http://www.cricut.com

EXTREME FONTS CONTEST WEEK 2 - WALL ART

Design by: Lilygirl (4 Projects)
About me: I am Wife to my best friend, Mom to 7 great kids, MIL to 5 beautiful girls and a Grandma to 3 sweet boys. I enjoy gardening,travelling and crafting. I make functional art, cards and scrapbook pages.

Project skill level: easy
Project time: less than 30 minutes
Project tags: Family Home Décor/Accents Wall Décor/Wreaths/Banners Retro Classic Baby Boy Girl Kids Teen Country Baby Décor Teacher Gifts/Cards Grade School Preschool/Kindergarten Gifts Kids Crafts Holiday Décor Playful Monochramatic

A really fun project made to remind children to take off their shoes at the door. I used the font from the free Extreme Fonts in Cricut Craftroom this week. It was fun to layer these letters in monochromatic paper of different designs. The super cute rubber boot was cut from the April Showers cartridge and the court shoes from the Basketball cartridge. Enjoy!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut® Basketball Solutions™ Cartridge

Cricut® April Showers Seasonal Cartridge

Cricut Expression 2: Anniversary Edition

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- Cardstock
- Repositionable Glue Dots
- Double-sided tape

STEP 1

Cut rubber boot and it's layer at 11.5 inches. Glue layers together.

STEP 2

Cut rubber boot and it's layer from April Showers cart. Adhere layers together with double-sided tape.

STEP 3

Using a length of twine and two tacks mark up 4 feet from floor for each tack . Secure twine behind each tack. This is your plumb line to ensure that your saying is straight. Line up letters and shoe on wall and stick with glue dots.

STEP 4

Add boot and the rest of the letters to wall and secure with glue dots.

RELATED PROJECTS

Family Memorise

View details

Love Blocks!

View details

Pirate Name plaque

View details