GRADUATION DECORATIONS - EXTREME FONTS CONTEST

Design by: Tennis15 (8 Projects)
About me: I got my first Cricut in 2007 and have been in love ever since! I would be lost without my Cricuts!!!
Project skill level: moderate
Project time: 1 hour to 2 hours
Project tags: School Home Décor/Accents Wall Décor/Wreaths/Banners Graduation Classic Kids Teen College Party Decorations/Favors Grade School Preschool/Kindergarten Holiday Décor Clean & Simple

I will be graduating from my Community College this year, so I made these adorable decorations to display at my party. You can change the colors to match your school and you will have an instant show stopper!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut Expression® Machine with Plantin SchoolBook and Accent Essentials®

Extreme Fonts

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- Poster Board (Two Colors)
- Glitter
- Liquid Glue

PROJECT CUT FILES

Graduation Display Shadows.ccr

STEP 1

Cut down your two colors of poster board to fit on a 12x24 mat.

STEP 2

Cut out the CCR Files and assemble the base and blackouts for the numbers and letters using liquid glue. Each of the numbers cuts out at 23.5 inches tall and the letters cut out at 10.5 inches tall.

STEP 3

Using liquid glue, outline the 2013 and sprinkle the glitter onto the glue.

STEP 4

Set out your letters to dry!

STEP 5

Once everything is dried, decorate a cute display for your graduation party!
