Count down to Christmas with some small gifts in a row of stockings. This was created using DCWV Glitter Paper Stack, Trimcraft Merry Magic paper and matching ribbons.

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut® Gingerbread Seasonal Cartridge

Cricut Mni® Personal Electronic Cutter

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- Thick coloured cardstock
- Coordinating ribbon
- Coordinating paper/light cardstock
- Small gifts

PROJECT CUT FILES

- stocking number.ccr
- stocking front.ccr
- stocking back.ccr

STEP 1

Cut the front stocking and back accent pieces from the same coloured cardstock.

Cut the back stocking and front accent pieces from coordinating paper.

Cut the number hook pieces from the same coloured card or any coordinating card.

STEP 2

Cut the front stocking from coloured card and the back accent pieces from the same card.

Cut the back stocking and front accent pieces from the coordinating paper.

Cut number pieces from any coordinating card. I used the same as the front.

STEP 3

Use the correct accent pieces on both sides of the stocking.

Glue the sides together, leaving a clear space at the top.

STEP 4

Punch a hole in the top of the stocking and tie a ribbon with a big enough loop to hang the stocking.

Hang the number piece on the ribbon. Use a paint marker to label each stocking.

STEP 5

Repeat for as many as you need. We made 12 for the 12 days of Christmas.

Fill with gifts and hang.
