I used my Cricut Cake to cut letters out of gum paste. Then I added them to some football shaped Oreo cookies that I had dipped in chocolate. They look really cute and taste even better!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut® Keystone Cartridge

Cricut Cake® Personal Electronic Cutter

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

gum paste

football shaped Oreo cookies

lollipop sticks

shortening

chocolate candy melts

rolling pin

STEP 1

First I greased my Cricut Cake mat with shortening. I then rolled out my gum paste and put it on my mat. I used the Keystone cartridge to cut my letters. It's been a while but, I think they were 2 in.

STEP 2

I then melted my chocolate candy melts and dipped my stick in the candy melt and sandwiched in the middle of the cookie (buy extra cookies they tend to break if you aren't careful when taking them apart). I let them set for 5 min. and then I dipped the cookie on the stick in the chocolate melt.

STEP 3

Next I took my gum paste letters and added one to each cookie. I added the letters while the chocolate was still wet. I just pushed them in slightly so that they would set. I let the cookies dry. Then added the piping detail on the sides and tops of the footballs using red and white candy melts.
