STEP 1

Haunted house card or invitation

Sizes of each piece

House back ground (yellow piece) - 7.139 width 10.51 height

Big ghost - 3.167 width 2.583 height

Mini ghost - 1 width 0.086 height

Treat bag (orange paper) - 1.542 width 1.375 height ( I cut this one twice one orange and one brown and I cut the handle off of the orange one and glue them together so I can get the orange face for inside the bag)

Treat bag (brown part, face) - 1.194 width 0.958 height

House (front of card) - 7.139 width 11.00 height

House front (brown with windows, cut out 2) - 7.208 width 9.319 height

Boo - 1.167 width 0.569 height

To create the pop up effect

1. Take a piece of paper fold in half and fold the ends in ( the ends that you fold in are the ones that you glue to the front of the inside on the card and the back of the card part that you open, Bend top back)

STEP 2

2. Glue your figurine to the paper, glue tabs to card and push the figurine down to the side people will see.

Then I glued the house together and, (I drew the bat and added it to make it look like a haunted house. The front of the card that people open I made a little bigger because you need to fold the bottom half of the card to help make the pop up effect. Here are some pictures that I took of the finished product I hope you like it.
