About me: I have been crafting/scraping for 5 years now, a Cricut owner for 2 but have only been using it for 6 months. Love it!

A few years ago I participated in a sister swap on the Cricut boards and this is one of the things I made for my 'sister'. One of the items we had to make was a 6x6 LO and she requested something for her 12 year old daughters scrapbook so this is what I came up with. I am so NOT a layout person at all. They aren't my favorite thing to do but I'm pretty happy with the way it came out. I used Indie cartridge for the skull and guitar, but I can't remember which cart I used for the plaid mat. I think it was a card cartridge.
