About me: I love to craft! When I'm not "Momming" or hanging out with my husband (he's my BFF), then I'm crafting or thinking about crafting. I run Joy's Life.com which is dedicated to my love of crafting.

Using the A Frightful Affair Cricut cartridge, I cut 3 right foot shoe prints and 3 left foot prints from black vinyl. You can find them on pages 82 & 83. I cut the footprints at 8.5". I suggest measuring your stairs for a good fit for you. Using red vinyl, I cut various sizes of the blood droplets found on page 69. Transfer tape makes it easy to remove the vinyl from its backing and then apply to the stairs. After I had all the shoe prints down, I added the blood. This is a fun a simple project with high impact for your Halloween decor!
