To make this layout I used a sketch online and cut random sized pieces of patterned paper from DCWV. I cut all the cuts from A Frightful Affair. I used the witch from the A Frightful Affair cart on the basic setting. Both Wicked & Witches came from the Silhouette feature with shift on. the hat is from phrase shift. I added green stickles to the lightning bolt in "wicked", and the witch hat from "witches", as well as the black witch hat on the bottom, the photo mat, and the witch at the top right. I also added some irock gems in orange, a green button and a purple pair of witch shoes (from a stash of buttons I had). I added some embroidery floss in white and purple around the bottom of the photo mat. The photo mat is cut at around 4.5x3 ish. The witch in the top is about 2.25 inches tall, Wicked is about 6x3, witches is about 1.5x4, and the witch hat is about 1.5x2. I adhered everything with ATG tape, Zig 2 way glue, and foam tape.
