this is actually a design I fell in love with in the design center from another cricut member but she didnt know where the argle came from so I tried to come as close as I could with out buying cartridges.... the skull is from single cut pumpkin carving #4 with the circle cut off the outside, in 2 different sizes to make the background, the argyle was from fathers day card individual cut and the numbers were in botanical I found a free print calender online

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Botanicals Cartridge
