A really fun project made to remind children to take off their shoes at the door. I used the font from the free Extreme Fonts in Cricut Craftroom this week. It was fun to layer these letters in monochromatic paper of different designs. The super cute rubber boot was cut from the April Showers cartridge and the court shoes from the Basketball cartridge. Enjoy!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Basketball Cartridge

April Showers Cartridge

Cricut Expression 2 Anniversary Edition

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

Cardstock

Double-sided tape

Repositionable Glue Dots

STEP 1

Cut rubber boot and it's layer at 11.5 inches. Glue layers together.

STEP 2

Cut rubber boot and it's layer from April Showers cart. Adhere layers together with double-sided tape.

STEP 3

Using a length of twine and two tacks mark up 4 feet from floor for each tack . Secure twine behind each tack. This is your plumb line to ensure that your saying is straight. Line up letters and shoe on wall and stick with glue dots.

STEP 4

Add boot and the rest of the letters to wall and secure with glue dots.
