Even though I am a Giants fan and hubby is a Cowboys fan, even now we continue to battle it out, lol... he wants the Ravens to win the Super Bowl and of course, I want the 49ers to win the Super Bowl. Hope the banner brings me luck...Woohoo 49ers!!!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut Expression®
Machine with Plantin
SchoolBook and Accent
Essentials®

Sports Mania Cartridge

Cuttlebug® Machine

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

green and brown cardstock

purple and black cardstock

yellow cardstock

pop dots and adhesive

white and blue cardstock

deep red and craft cardstock

grass pattern paper

mesh embossing folder

STEP 1

Using the Cricut Craft Room "Extreme Fonts" for the contest, I cut out SUPER BOWL in white, then the shift feature, I cut out SUPER BOWL in blue, about 2.2 in x 5.4 in.

STEP 2

Using Sports Mania cartridge with CDS, cut out in brown and blackout in white at approx. 4 in. Emboss brown with mesh embossing folder, glue together. Now cut out in brown and blackout in white at approx. 2 in. (cut 11) glue together. Also cut out shift-layer feature in yellow for the goal post about 10 in. Glue large football in between the goal post and pop dot one end.

STEP 3

Using the Sports Mania cartridge, I cut the in green cardstock, I cut the shadow in brown and the layer in "grass" pattern paper, about 8 in. Glue together and add the pop dotted SUPER BOWL font.

STEP 4

Cut out 1 in purple and 1 in deep red. Cut out layer and shadow in black and again in craft paper. Glue together, print out logo for each team, cut it out and glue it to the helmets.

STEP 5

Arrange banner on wall and add the little footballs in between each flag. Add helmet and the goal post.

STEP 6

Decided on faux stitching with white gel pen.
