STEP 1

I use the Walmart brand tissues which is the same size as Kleenex. You will need to cut (2) 5 1/8 x 9 1/2 pieces of cardstock for you base. Cut one 9 9/16 square piece of cardstock for the lid. You will also need (4) 4 1/4 x 4 inch pieces of cardstock or pattern papers for the sides. You will also need one 4 1/4 square piece for the top. Score your long pieces at 1/2 and 5 inches. I used scor tape, but something that will hold securely to put the pieces together to form base. You score the lid piece at one inch on all four sides and cut as shown in the picture to fold for the lid. To form the opening in the top I used Spellbinder dies and used the 3rd one in the set of large ovals. Put your lid together with scor tape and it will fit on the base. I go ahead and tape the insides of the lid to secure it to the base so that it does not move or come apart. I added the side panels and started to decorate. With the second piece for the top, I added another Spellbinder die labels one middle size for my top. I embossed the top piece with the snowflake Cuttlebug folder. Here are the rest of the materials I used.
