About me: I love to do all types of crafting - decor, gifts, cards, scrapbooking, candle making, cooking, baking, you name it! My Cricut has opened up another avenue for me to craft with!

This album was made for a 50th wedding anniversary. I was tickled pink that it came out a: Right when I decided to try the Craft Room and b: Because my aunt loves Native things! I apologize, but you will need to go to my blog to see the double page photos. For some reason when I try to upload them here, half of the photo is missing!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Cricut Expression® Machine with Plantin SchoolBook and Accent Essentials®

Cricut® Gypsy Wanderings Digital Cartridge

Elegant Edges Cartridge

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

Bazzill card stock

Prima

DCW7Gypsies designer paper

STEP 1

I used Gypsy Wanderings for the 50. The eagle, border and label are from Southwest.

STEP 2

I made this charm to go along with the mini album. I used polyshrink for the 50, heart and eagle - all cut from SW cart. I then colored them with marker and heated them until they shrank. I then added Judikins glaze over the 50 and sprinkled with the same glitter I added to the 50 on the cover page.

Charms

STEP 3

For the inside pages, I cut out several images and applied them throughout the album. This page is my favorite. I love the image of the water finder. He looks like he is dancing and celebrating.
