OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

3 scraps assorted light blue cardstock

2 shades of green cardstock

3 scraps assorted brown/tan cardstock

orange rose marigold maroon cardstock

STEP 1

Flip and cut Kokopelli figure on Shift at 2.292 x 3.639 inches in the rose cardstock.
Flip and cut Kokopelli figure on Shift at 2.069 x 3.278 inches in the deepest brown cardstock.
Flip and cut Kokopelli figure basic at 2.042 x 3.333 inches in the orange cardstock.

STEP 2

Cut one Sun on Shift at 2.568 x 2.583 inches in deep brown cardstock
Cut one Sun on Basic at 2.514 x 2.50 inches in marigold cardstock

STEP 3

Cut one Cactus1 on Shift at 4.486 x 4.194 inches using the dark green cardstock
Cut one Cactus1 on Basic at 4.333 x 4.042 inches using light green cardstock

STEP 4

Cut one WildRose on Shift at 0.931 x 0.889 inches in the maroon cardstock
Cut one WildRose on Basic at 0.847 x 0.819 inches in pale pink cardstock

STEP 5

Glue all layers of Kokopelli together
Glue all layers of the Sun together
Glue all layers of Cactus 1 together; and finally glue all layers of WildRose together.

STEP 6

On a 5" X 7" blank card tear a horizontal strip of the blue cardstock and adhere to the top of the card.
Tear the next horizontal strip of a different blue making sure to overlap the first strip.
Tear the last horizontal strip of the remaining blue and adhere to the second strip. You've created the sky.

STEP 7

Tear your darkest brown cardstock into a horizontal hill and adhere on the last blue strip.
Repeat with the remaining two variations of tans until the card is covered in a hilly effect.
Trim any overhanging pieces so that the edges are clean.

STEP 8

Adhere the sun and cactus flat with sticky tape. Pop up Kokopelli and the Rose with pop dots.
You have now made a beautiful Southwest landscape!
