Spiritual/Religious Family Cards Just Because

Cards Playful

I used the Simple Cards cartridge to create the front then dressed up the center area with 6 Martha Stewart pearls. The Irish colleen was created with the Paper Doll Dress Up cartridge and Peachy Keen Stamps with the Martha Stewart butterfly punch to finish the left lower corner. I added the easel from the Fancy Frames cartridge, to the back of the card. I wanted to stand the card on a shelf and the easel from Fancy Frames is perfect. I love the easel cut on the Fancy Frames cartridge. The Simple Cards Cartridge is really easy to work with and very versatile.

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

Martha Stewart Butterfly Punch

Martha Stewart Fine Tip Glue Pen

Peachy Keen Stamp

Martha Stewart Pearls

HeroArts rubber stamp

STEP 1

I cut a piece of blue card stock paper to make the size 8" long by 5 1/2" wide. With the Cricut Expression I cut the Card 2 and Card 2 Insert from the Simple Cards Cartridge at 5 1/2".

STEP 2

The Irish colleen was cut from Paper Doll Dress Up at 5 1/2" but her hair, dress and shoes were cut at 4 3/4" because when I cut them at 5 1/2" they seemed a little too big.

STEP 3

I used the Lattice cut found on the Creative Cards cartridge to design a frame to hold the picture of the sunrise. I used three of the left over cuts from Cards 2 cut on three corners around the picture. I used the Martha Stewart butterfly punch to finish the final corner on the picture.

STEP 4

On the back of the card I placed the easel that I cut from the Fancy Frames cartridge and I cut the heart from the Doodlecharms cartridge.

STEP 5

I used the "HeroArts.com" rubber stamp to finish the back with the phrase "Handmade from the Heart".
