Preschool/Kindergarten Iron-on Vinyl

I was given some t-shirt for my toddler, that where too plain for my taste, so I dediced to embellish them with my cricut. The white one is for me, I know it's off-center, but when I realized it it was too late and I hal already ironed the vinyl.

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Oricut Expression® Machine with Flantin SchoolBook and Accent Essentials®

Oricut® Accent Essentials Cartridge

Oricut® Robot Party Cartridge

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- iron on vinyl
- iron and ironing board

- cotton t-shirts
- baking paper

STEP 1

cut your design in reverse with medium pressure and blade set on 2 or 1 depending on the thickness of the vinyl

STEP 2

remember to put your vinyl right side down on the mat

STEP 3

Remove your design from the mat and throw away all the pieces you don't need.

STFP 4

Use your transparent sheet that is sticky to put your design on the t-shirt and iron it with hot iron without steam. Wait to cool and remove transfer paper.

STEP 5

If you need to layer the vinyl, cover the design wit baking paper in the places you are not layering.
