STEP 1

This project is super easy. All you need is a bottle cap (craft version so the edges aren't rough), chalkboard spray paint, and a chain to create the pendant base and the Cricut cartridge Chalkboard Fonts to create the lettering. If your cap does not have a hole in it, punch one first. You can use a crop-a-dile or just a hammer and nail will work. Allow an hour to dry and then spray paint the opposite side.

STEP 2

Using the Cricut cartridge Chalkboard fonts, cut your lettering out. The lettering should be between .5 and .75 to fit inside a standard bottle cap. Using a pick tool, place the vinyl lettering onto the bottle cap as desired.

STEP 3

Add the pendant to a chain and your ready to sport your trendy chalkboard pendant necklace. This is a super easy version, but you could dress it up even more by using a fancy blank pendant, beads, or even a small ribbon bow.
