Repurpose an old pan into a piece of welcome decor for your front porch, door, or even inside! It is also a chalkboard with the word "Welcome" from the Cricut Chalkboard Fonts permanently attached. I can see hanging it on the porch and writing under welcome- "Birthday Party Guests", "home baby girl", or whatever event your family is celebrating!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Oricut Expression® Machine with Plantin SchoolBook and Accent Essentials®

Oricut® Close To My Heart® Cartridge, Art

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

- Chalkboard Paint
- Cricut Chalkboard Font Cartridge
- Hot Glue Gun
- White Cardstock

- Pan
- Burlap Ribbon
- Pearl Opaques
- Cricut White Vinyl

PROJECT CUT FILES

Welcome Pan.ccr

Remove the handle of the pan. Mine came off easily with one screw.

STEP 2

Using chalkboard paint, brush on several layers onto the cooking part of the pan. Heft the underside as is, Hiked it being red.

STEP 3

The pan I used left a little metal hanger after removing the handle. Tie burlap ribbon through this to create a hanger. To cover the metal, attach a bow made with burlap ribbon and twine. Cover the twine with three pearl opaques.

STFP 4

Cut the CCR file using white vinyl and attach to pan.

STED 5

Make two burlap flowers by circling the burlap around itself and using hot glue. Attach to pan using hot glue. Add pearl opaques to cover up any glue spots.

STEP 6

Cut a 4" rose out of white cardstock with the Cricut Art Philosophy Cartridge. Roll and glue to make a 3D flower and attach to the pan.
