I'm learning to make shaped cards with Cricut Craft Room. I've been wanting to try it for a while but put it in the too hard basket. OMG!! Not too hard at all. The beehive is cut at 5 inches and the little bees are 2.5 inches. Both cuts are from Create A Critter. I wish I could take credit for this design but the truth is I found the original on Google Images over a month ago and I've no idea who to credit. I have seen loads similar but this particular card gave me the idea to use Peachy Keen stamps for the faces. So very cute.
