This project, is in the style of a Chinese take out box. It combines the box from Cricut Projects Sweet Tooth Boxes, with the panda detail from Cricut Create A Critter. I used 2 contrasting pieces of red card, which really bring out the panda on the side of the box. This project is quick to make and the interlocking lid, helps it to store treats, such as fortune cookies!

CRICUT®: WHAT WAS USED

Create a Critter Cartridge

Sweet Tooth Boxes Cartridge

Cricut Expression® 2

OTHER MATERIALS NEEDED

12 x 12 Piece Of Red Card	12 X 12 Piece Of Contrasting Red Card
Adhesive	Scoring Board
Scrap Card: Black & White	(x3) Foam Dimensional Dots

STEP 1

To make the box, using Cricut Projects Sweet Tooth Boxes, cut out on the red card (x2) the sides of the box <TakeOut> in 6 inches. On the contrasting card, cut out (x1) the other sides of the box <TkOutLy1> also in 6 inches (pages 33 - 36 in the handbook).

STEP 2

Score all 4 cut out pieces using the indicated dash marks. Once you have done this, apply adhesive where shown in the handbook (page 36) and stick down firmly to assemble the box. Fill the box with your chosen treats (I put fortune cookies in mine) and close the lid, using the interlocking tabs.

STEP 3

To make the panda detail, using Cricut Create A Critter, cut out the panda base layer onto black card <Panda> at 2 inches. Then, cut out the first layer onto white card <Layer1> also at 2 inches. Assemble the layers with a strong holding adhesive. Place 3 foam dimensional dots on the back of the panda and stick onto one of the sides of the box.
